

Custom Controller

We also integrate other manufacturers's motion controllers upon request. We can integrate most industry standard control systems as well as specialized PC-based controls. These controllers are useful when full PLC control is required for specific automation tasks.